The authors have noticed an error in Figure 1 D of the original publication. The authors inadvertently reversed the labeling of for the anti-ERdj8 and the anti-ATG13 signals. Consequently, the labeling of the merged image was also reversed. The corrected figure is shown below. This change does not alter the interpretation of the figure or the conclusions of the manuscript. This error appears only in PDF versions downloaded on or before September 23, 2020.
