

In the article "Dendritic cells pulsed with protein antigens in vitro can prime antigen-specific, MHC-restricted T cells in situ" by K. Inaba, J.P. Metlay, M.T. Crowley, and R.M. Steinman (August 1990, 172:631), there was a mistake made regarding two references. The correct references appear below.

23. Crowley, M.T., K. Inaba, M.D. Witmer-Pack, S. Gezelter, and R.M. Steinman. 1990. Use of the fluorescence activated cell sorter to enrich dendritic cells from mouse spleen. J. Immunol. In press.
  24. Crowley, M., K. Inaba, and R.M. Steinman. 1990. Dendritic cells are the principal cells in mouse spleen bearing immunogenic fragments of foreign proteins. J. Exp. Med. 172:383.
