

EXPRESSION OF CONCERN

Expression of Concern: ACKR4 restrains antitumor immunity by regulating CCL21

Based on external and internal investigations conducted by QIMR Berghofer Medical Research Institute in response to concerns around data fabrication and falsification by Professor Mark Smyth, JEM is issuing this Expression of Concern regarding Figures 4 A, 4 I, 5 A, 5 B, S2 D, and S2 F from Whyte et al. (2020) J. Exp. Med. 217 (6): e20190634.

Vol. 217, No. 6 | <https://doi.org/10.1084/jem.20190634> | April 14, 2020

Whyte, C.E., M. Osman, E.E. Kara, C. Abbott, J. Foeng, D.R. McKenzie, K.A. Fenix, Y. Harata-Lee, K.L. Foyle, S.T. Boyle, M. Kochetkova, A.R. Aguilera, J. Hou, X.-Y. Li, M.A. Armstrong, S.M. Pederson, I. Comerford, M.J. Smyth, and S.R. McColl. 2020. ACKR4 restrains antitumor immunity by regulating CCL21. J. Exp. Med. 217:e20190634. <https://doi.org/10.1084/jem.20190634>