

CORRECTION

Correction: A mathematical model to quantify RYR $\text{Ca}^{2+}$ leak and associated heat production in resting human skeletal muscle fibers

Christopher J. Barclay and Bradley S. Launikonis

Vol. 154, No. 9 | 10.1085/jgp.202112994 | March 21, 2022

The initial version of Fig. A1 should not have included P3 and P7 data, and other data should have been merged. JGP regrets this error, which was introduced during the production process.

The corrected figure is shown here. The errors appear only in PDF versions downloaded on or before April 7, 2022.
